

FOH Presents Gold Star Product Awards at NAMM

At the NAMM show, along with all the state-of-the-art products being revealed for the first time, there was a full array of products that have proven themselves to be worthy of special recognition. While not being unveiled for the first time, they have proved themselves by gaining traction in the marketplace. Here without further ado are the editorial staff's picks for the first 20 products being honored with FRONT of HOUSE's Gold Star Awards.
